

CALL FOR PAPERS

16TH CONFERENCE

THEORIES AND METHODS IN MACROECONOMICS

Université de Nantes,
Nantes, France

May 10-11, 2012

The LEMNA (Laboratoire d'Economie et de Management de Nantes-Atlantique) and the “Université de Nantes” are pleased to announce that the 16th Conference « Theories and Methods in Macroeconomics » (T2M) will be held in Nantes (France), on May 10-11, 2012.

The conference is partly aimed at young researchers who will present their papers in parallel sessions, but it also hosts more experienced researchers in parallel, semi-plenary or plenary sessions.

Theoretical and empirical papers in macroeconomics are welcome. All presentations and discussions will be in English.
